Fiscal 2010 highlights include:

- Strengthened the Company's Board of Directors and Management team
- Raised gross proceeds of $5,010,000 in a non-brokered private placement
- Completed a drill program at Yenipazar for metallurgical testwork and infill
- Incurred a net loss of $3,679,402 versus a loss of $2,694,436 in fiscal 2009 due to increased corporate activity

Highlights subsequent to November 30, 2010:

- Completed a National Instrument 43-101 compliant Preliminary Economic Assessment prepared by P&E Mining Consultants Inc.
- Raised additional gross proceeds of $12.4 million through a bought deal private placement lead by Dundee Securities Corporation and including Clarus Securities Inc., Macquarie Capital Markets Canada Ltd. and Raymond James Ltd.
- Released positive sampling results from fieldwork carried out at the Company's 338 square kilometre license in the highlands of Papua New Guinea

Aldridge announced that its CFO, Ed Badida, will be leaving the Company effective March 31st, 2011. Mr. Badida will remain available to assist the Company with its transition to a new CFO. Mr. Carmelo Marrelli C.A., has been appointed the Company's interim CFO. Mr. Marrelli is the President of Marrelli Support Services Inc., which Aldridge retained in January to provide ongoing bookkeeping and accounting services.

"In 2010 we made considerable progress strengthening board and management, capitalizing the Company with sufficient resources, and advancing our projects in both Turkey and Papua New Guinea," said Jacob Willoughby, President of Aldridge. "In 2011, we will use our strong capital position to push forward with the Yenipazar feasibility study and for further exploration and development in both Turkey and Papua New Guinea."

The Company has also granted 60,000 options to employees at its Turkish operations. All options are exercisable at a price of $1.29 per common share, which reflects the closing price of Aldridge shares on March 30, 2011. The options vest immediately and expire in 5 years. This grant of options is subject to acceptance by the TSX Venture Exchange.

Finally, Aldridge has renewed its agreement with Profinnotiv AG to provide Aldridge with investor relations and public relations services in the European market. Under the terms of the agreement, which was originally announced on June 28th, 2010, Aldridge will pay Profinnotiv AG a fee of CAD $195,000 for the year. The contract term is 12 months with an option to terminate after an initial six month period, commencing immediately.

Profinnotiv AG will continue to leverage extensive relationships within the professional investment community as well as to communicate with existing Aldridge stakeholders in Europe. The company has a long history in Europe with strong investor support and a listing on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.
