

Bengal Energy Finalizes US $25 Million Secured Credit Facility and Announces Redemption of 10% Non-Convertible Notes

25.10.2014 | Marketwired

CALGARY, ALBERTA--(Marketwired - Oct 24, 2014) - Bengal Energy Ltd. \(TSX:BNG\) ("Bengal" or the "Company") is pleased to announce the closing of its US $25.0 million secured credit facility (the "Facility") with Westpac Institutional Bank. The Facility is secured by the Company's producing assets in the Cuisinier field in Australia's Cooper Basin over a three-year term. In advance of the initial draw, Bengal will initiate a program to hedge approximately 280,000 barrels of oil over the term of the loan. The Company anticipates the initial draw will occur before October 31, 2014 and will be used to finance Phase 2 of the 2014 Cuisinier drilling program set to commence in November 2014.

The Company will also utilize the Facility to fund the redemption price of the $7.5 million principal amount of the Company's 10% outstanding unsecured non-convertible redeemable notes (the "Notes"). Bengal has issued a notice of redemption to holders of the Notes pursuant to which Bengal will redeem the Notes, effective November 24, 2014 (the "Redemption Date") for a redemption price equal to $1.03 per $1.00 of outstanding principal amount of the Notes plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon to but excluding the Redemption Date, for an aggregate redemption price for the Notes of $7,838,014.

Forward-Looking Statements

This news release contains certain forward-looking statements or information ("forward-looking statements") as defined by applicable securities laws that involve substantial known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond Bengal's control. These statements relate to future events or our future performance. All statements other than statements of historical fact may be forward looking statements. The use of any of the words "plan", "expect", "prospective", "project", "intend", "believe", "should", "anticipate", "estimate", or other similar words or statements that certain events "may" or "will" occur are intended to identify forward-looking statements. The projections, estimates and beliefs contained in such forward-looking statements are based on management's estimates, opinions, and assumptions at the time the statements were made, including assumptions relating to: the impact of economic conditions in North America, Australia, India and globally; industry conditions; changes in laws and regulations including, without limitation, the adoption of new environmental laws and regulations and changes in how they are interpreted and enforced; increased competition; the availability of qualified operating or management personnel; fluctuations in commodity prices, foreign exchange or interest rates; stock market volatility and fluctuations in market valuations of companies with respect to announced transactions and the final valuations thereof; results of exploration and testing activities; and the ability to obtain required approvals and extensions from regulatory authorities. We believe the expectations reflected in those forward-looking statements are reasonable but, no assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur, or if any of them do so, what benefits that Bengal will derive from them. As such, undue reliance should not be placed on forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements contained herein include, but are not limited to, statements regarding: the timing of satisfaction of hedging conditions and timing for initial first draw by the Company; the anticipated use of the initial draw down from the Facility; and the Redemption Date. The forward-looking statements contained herein are subject to numerous known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause Bengal's actual financial results, performance or achievement in future periods to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements, including but not limited to, risks associated with: the failure to satisfy final closing conditions in relation to the Facility; the failure to obtain required regulatory approvals or extensions; failure to satisfy the conditions under farm-in and joint venture agreements; failure to secure required equipment and personnel; changes in general global economic conditions including, without limitations, the economic conditions in North America, Australia, India; increased competition; the availability of qualified operating or management personnel; fluctuations in commodity prices, foreign exchange or interest rates; changes in laws and regulations including, without limitation, the adoption of new environmental and tax laws and regulations and changes in how they are interpreted and enforced; the results of exploration and development drilling and related activities; the ability to access sufficient capital from internal and external sources; and stock market volatility. Further, certain noted production information provided in this press release may constitute "analogous information" under applicable securities legislation, such as production rates from wells drilled by other industry participants located in geographical proximity to lands held by the Company. This information is derived from publicly available information sources that the Company believes are predominantly independent in nature however readers are cautioned that the information may be in error, may not be analogous to the Company's land holdings and/or may not be representative of actual results of wells anticipated to be drilled or completed by the Company in the future. Readers are encouraged to review the material risks discussed in Bengal's Annual Information Form under the heading "Risk Factors" and in Bengal's annual MD&A under the heading "Risk Factors". The Company cautions that the foregoing list of assumptions, risks and uncertainties is not exhaustive. The forward-looking statements contained in this news release speak only as of the date hereof and Bengal does not assume any obligation to publicly update or revise them to reflect new events or circumstances, except as may be required pursuant to applicable securities laws.
