

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - November 5, 2015) - Galileo Petroleum Ltd. (TSXV: GPL) (FWB: P5HH) ("Galileo") announces the appointment of Mr. Ron Rieder to the Board of Directors.

Mr. Rieder has 30 years of corporate finance and business experience. Recently he acted as the President and CEO for a Uranium exploration company assisting in the formation of a 4 company syndicate to explore over 700,000 acres of prospective land in the Athabasca Basin of Saskatchewan, Canada. Immediately prior to this, he was the Vice President, Corporate Finance for a gold exploration company where he assisted in raising in excess of $20 million dollars over a 3 year period. Mr. Rieder's diverse ventures include: hosting a financial radio show, writing a newsletter focused on building a successful portfolio of micro-cap investment ideas for his clients, and reading and vetting a plethora of business plans. He has been active in almost all facets of business.

The Board looks forward to Mr. Rieder's enthusiasm, drive and determination to assist the Company in their future business opportunities.

ON BEHALF OF GALILEO PETROLEUM LTD.

"David N. Hottman"

David N. Hottman
President and CEO

Neither the TSX Venture Exchange nor its Regulation Services Provider (as that term is defined in the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange) accepts responsibility for the adequacy or accuracy of this News Release. This news release has been prepared by management and no regulatory authority has approved or disapproved the information contained herein.

For further information contact:

David Hottman, President & CEO at 604-629-1929
E-mail: info@galileopetroleum.ca