

TORONTO, ONTARIO--(Marketwired - Dec. 22, 2015) - Canadian Silver Hunter Inc. ("Canadian Silver Hunter" or the "Company") (TSX VENTURE:AGH) announces that Shastri Ramnath has resigned as a director of the Company. Management and the board of directors would like to thank Ms. Ramnath for her contributions to the Company and wish her well in her future endeavours.

The Company is pleased to announce that Mr. Andrew Moore has been appointed as a director effective immediately. He joins us after working at Grey Island Systems International, Inc. where he was, at times, the CEO, President and Chief Technology Officer, as well as Co-Founder, and a director from its formation until the sale to Webtech Wireless Inc. He was instrumental in growing Grey Island from its startup in 1998 to its sale in 2009 with revenues of over $24 Million.

Since his time with Grey Island, Andrew has been consulting to various organizations transitioning to new technologies that are creating and harvesting Big Data from the high growth of devices collecting information on the Internet of Things. Andrew has extensive experience in technology, corporate governance, corporate financing and general business administration and will be a useful and valuable addition as a member of our board.

About Canadian Silver Hunter Inc.

Canadian Silver Hunter Inc. is a Canadian exploration company focused on the exploration of silver-cobalt deposits on its flagship South Lorrain Project (formerly the Keeley Frontier Project). The South Lorrain Project is located within the historic South Lorrain Silver Camp, which along with the historic Cobalt and Gowganda silver camps is part of a world class silver district in the Abitibi Greenstone Belt between Temagami and Kirkland Lake, in northeastern Ontario. The South Lorrain Project is made up of four properties, centered by two prolific past producing silver-cobalt mines, the Keeley and the Frontier. Combined historic production from the two mines totaled 19.2 million ounces of silver, and 3.3 million pounds of cobalt, with an average grade of 58 ounces of silver per tonne. The company will continue to focus its exploration efforts on the existing targets located on the Keeley-Frontier property portion of the project. For further details about the Company's project and plans please visit the Canadian Silver Hunter Inc. website at www.canadiansilverhunter.ca.
