

Noble Midstream Partners LP (“Noble Midstream”;) today announced that it has commenced its initial public offering of 12,500,000 common units representing limited partner interests in Noble Midstream, at an anticipated initial public offering price between $19.00 and $21.00 per common unit, pursuant to a registration statement on Form S-1 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). Noble Midstream expects to grant the underwriters a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 1,875,000 common units at the initial public offering price. The common units are expected to trade on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol “NBLX.”

The common units being offered to the public represent an approximate 39.3% limited partner interest in Noble Midstream, or an approximate 45.2% limited partner interest if the underwriters exercise, in full, their option to purchase additional common units. Noble Energy Inc. (“Noble Energy”;) and certain of its subsidiaries will own the remaining limited partner interest in Noble Midstream and all of its incentive distribution rights and will own Noble Midstream’s general partner.

Barclays, Baird, J.P. Morgan, BofA Merrill Lynch, Citigroup, Deutsche Bank Securities, DNB Markets, Mizuho Securities, MUFG and Wells Fargo Securities are acting as book-running managers for the offering and Barclays and Baird are acting as structuring fee agents for the offering. The offering of these securities is being made only by means of a written prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933.
