

TORONTO, ON--(Marketwired - May 18, 2017) - Continental Gold Inc. (TSX: CNL) (OTCQX: CGOOF) ("Continental" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has closed its previously-announced private placements to Newmont Mining Corp. ("Newmont") and RK Mine Finance Master Fund I Limited ("Red Kite").

Newmont purchased 37.38 million common shares of Continental at a price of C$4.00 per share for a total investment of US$109 million. Concurrent with Newmont's investment in Continental, Red Kite also purchased 8.59 million common shares of Continental at a price of C$4.00 per share for a total investment of US$25 million, as contemplated in Continental's secured project credit facility (the "Credit Facility") with Red Kite. After giving effect to the private equity placements, Newmont and Red Kite own approximately 19.9% and 4.6%, respectively, of the issued and outstanding common shares of Continental on a non-diluted basis.

The Company intends to use the proceeds of Newmont's investment to develop the Buritic  project and such proceeds satisfy the funding condition required to draw the second tranche of US$100 million under the Credit Facility.

About Continental Gold

Continental Gold Inc. is an advanced-stage exploration and development company with an extensive portfolio of 100%-owned gold projects in Colombia. Formed in April 2007, the Company -- led by an international management team with a successful track record of discovering and developing large high-grade gold deposits in Latin America -- is focused on advancing its fully-permitted high-grade Buritic  gold project to production with first gold pour on track for early 2020.
