25.09.2019 | GlobeNewswire

PHOENIX, Sept. 25, 2019 - Tombstone Exploration Corp. (OTCQB: TMBXF) a fully reporting company, today provided an update on its operations and outlook.

Tombstone Exploration has been working diligently to get the Bonanza Project into production. The permitting process for the Bonanza Project is close to completion. The Air Quality Permit was submitted July 2nd and has been accepted. In addition, the Aquifer Protection Permit (APP) application for the Bonanza Mining Company is currently under a substantive review phase by the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ). The Company is expecting completion and approval of all the required permits during November/December 2019 and will immediately start the construction phase upon receipt.

TMBXF completed the filings and payments for all of its Bureau of Land Management (BLM) mining claims for the Stardust Project located in the Eagletail Mining District of Yuma County, Arizona on August 29, 2019. The Company is continuing its exploration plan on the Stardust Property, which is 100% owned by Tombstone Exploration. During its previous drilling phase with this project, a strong presence of quartz veins and silicification was found which suggests excellent potential for gold and silver results.

Alan M. Brown, Chief Executive Officer of Tombstone Exploration, stated, "We are extremely excited about the direction of the Company and are expecting to receive responses in the forthcoming months on all permits. This will add to the rapidly growing portfolio of Tombstone Exploration. We look forward to the boost that gold may continue to receive from investors that are weary about the current global geopolitical climate. With gold now at its highest level since 2013, we feel that it is a very opportune time to finalize the permitting process expeditiously and we are on track to meet that goal. Shareholders can expect further updates in the near term regarding our multiple active projects."
