DENVER, Feb. 3, 2020 - Institutional investors, portfolio managers, financial analysts, CIOs and other capital market professionals who invest in the energy space should register now for the EnerCom Dallas energy investment conference, which is co-located at the Tower Club February 11-12 in downtown Dallas.

The EnerCom Dallas conference follows EnerCom's familiar 25-minute CEO presentation format, followed by 50-minute breakout sessions, opportunities in separate breakout rooms, one-on-one meeting opportunities for buy-side investors and sell-side research analysts, company management teams, networking opportunities and global insight delivered by leading energy economists and industry experts. The event also provides energy industry professionals a venue to learn about important energy topics affecting the global energy and gas industry. Key panel discussions include Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG), Capital Markets, LNG Landmark and Midstream.

New this year, the EnerCom Dallas conference is offering a unique opportunity for energy related technology, alternative and traditional oil and gas start-up ventures to present their business to a captive audience of investors. The Energy Innovation Capital Accelerator Session will provide invited presenters the opportunity to give a fifteen-minute presentation and participate in a Q&A. Investors can also schedule private one-on-one meetings with session participants at the Tower Club, Dallas.

The EnerCom Dallas schedule is now live and will be updated continuously on the conference site.

Charlie Riedl, Vice President, NGSA and Executive Director, Center for LNG Will Present

Charlie Riedl is the Executive Director for the Center for Liquefied Natural Gas (CLNG), focused on effectively advocating for the LNG industry. As Executive Director, Riedl works with CLNG member companies, regulators, legislators and other stakeholders to provide credible and educational information about the economic and environmental benefits of LNG. Charlie has testified in both chambers of the United States Congress on the importance and benefits of LNG exports.

Prior to joining CLNG, Charlie worked at America's Natural Gas Alliance (ANGA) and at a major exploration and production company in various roles focused on natural gas market development and government relations. Charlie's experience in the gas industry includes regulatory, upstream production, downstream and pipeline development projects, as well as natural gas transportation fuel.
