Ring Energy Inc. and Steward Energy LLC, two of Yoakum County's top three production companies, are well-site operators

DALLAS, Oct. 21, 2020 - Rising Phoenix Royalties (RPR) announces its second 2020 Yoakum County, Permian Basin, natural gas royalty acquisition, totaling 24 PDP wells, from an undisclosed seller.

Ring Energy Inc. (NYSEAM: REI) and Steward Energy LLC, two of the top 3 production companies in Yoakum County, operators.

"Rising Phoenix Royalties acquired the Yoakum County acquisition through our mineral space network," notes Janie W. President, Rising Phoenix Royalties. "Many of our acquisitions are the result of trusted relationships we have within the industry."

"We welcome royalty acquisition partnerships with mineral companies that are seeking added backing to complete purchases and continued production. In addition, we purchase assets mineral companies are looking to divest."

Midland, Texas-based Ring Energy Inc. has 35 years of experience in analyzing, drilling, and production in the Permian Basin formation with approximately 1,400 wells drilled to date.

Steward Energy LLC, founded in 2012 and headquartered in Frisco, TX, is an independent exploration and production company, holding over 100,000 acres in New Mexico and Texas.

RPR, backed by 4 generations of oil and gas industry expertise, helps guide mineral owners nationwide with solutions for their mineral assets. Common reasons why RPR clients choose to sell their royalties include liquidating estates, diversifying investment portfolios, funding retirement, maximizing tax benefits, or for immediate financial need. RPR provides a comprehensive analysis of each divestiture to assist owners in achieving their financial and life goals.
