EnerCom anticipates hosting 40+ energy companies and presentations as a part of the EnerCom Dallas Energy Investment and ESG Conference

One-on-one meeting requests are open for institutional investors and research analysts at the conference venue and online

Event will be a hybrid format with a small (100 - 150 people) in person audience on April 6 in Dallas at the Petroleum Club (still webcast out to ~1,000+) and a full virtual day of presentations and panel discussions on April 7

DENVER, March 23, 2021 - EnerCom, Inc. announces participating companies for the EnerCom Dallas Energy Investment Conference April 6-7, 2021. EnerCom Dallas is a financial conference that allows institutional investors an early 2021 opportunity to meet CEOs from leading independent E&Ps, including some of the industry's leading Permian, Eagle Ford, Marcellus, Canadian producers, and the oilfield service companies supporting them, and hear them discuss their plans to drive development, fund operations and return value to shareholders in 2021.

"We are excited to be one of the first, if not the first, energy investment conferences to start bringing industry and capital back together in person. I want to thank all our supporters and participating companies for helping us make this event a reality. EnerCom Dallas will give the investment community and peers an early opportunity to hear the leading independent oil and gas producers and service companies present their plans for 2021," said Aaron Vandeford, President of EnerCom. "Growing investor expectations around CSR has increased the emphasis by investors on making investments in companies that are actively addressing ESG concerns. EnerCom will look to help facilitate this dialogue at our Dallas conference."

Registration for EnerCom Dallas is now open

Buyside professionals and oil and gas company executives may register for the event, at no cost, through the conference website.

The EnerCom Dallas conference follows EnerCom's familiar 25-minute CEO presentation format, followed by 50-minute breakout sessions, networking opportunities in separate breakout rooms, one-on-one meeting opportunities for buyside investors to meet company management teams, networking opportunities and global insight delivered by leading energy economists and strategists. The event offers energy industry professionals a venue to learn about important energy topics affecting the global oil and gas industry. The conference offers healthy dialogue and informal networking opportunities for attendees and presenters.

Conference Details: Modeled after EnerCom's The Oil & Gas Conference® in Denver, EnerCom Dallas offers investment professionals a unique opportunity to listen to oil and gas company senior management teams update investors on their operations and financial strategies and learn how the leading energy companies are building value in 2021. This event will be hosted in a hybrid format (in person and online). We want to take the first steps of safely bringing the industry together in person while maintaining optionality for participants to join the discussion virtually depending on everyone's unique situation.

Conference Dates: April 6 and 7, 2021

Venue: Dallas Petroleum Club (and webcast live) on April 6, 2021. Fully online on 7, 2021.

Public and Private Company Presenters: EnerCom Dallas will feature both public and private companies headquartered in the U.S. with operations across the most active and prolific oil and gas regions and the globe.

Who Attends the Conference: Institutional and hedge fund investors, private equity investors, energy research analysts, broker/dealers, trust officers, high net worth investors, commercial energy bankers and other energy industry professionals will gather in Dallas for the conference.

One-on-One Meetings: EnerCom works in advance with presenting company management teams to arrange one-on-one meetings with the attending institutional investors and research analysts at the conference venue and online.
