

Murphy Oil Corporation Announces Close of Non-Core Canadian Asset Sale, Advances Capital Allocation Framework With Redemption of 5.750% Senior Notes Due 2025

15.09.2023 | Business Wire

Murphy Oil Corp. (NYSE: MUR) today announced that its subsidiary closed the previously announced divestment of certain non-core operated Kaybob Duvernay assets and all of its non-operated Placid Montney assets. The transaction was announced on August 3, 2023, and has an effective date of March 1, 2023.

After closing adjustments, Murphy received cash proceeds of approximately C$141 million, or US$104 million¹. There is no cash tax liability expected with this transaction.

Murphy also announced today that it will redeem all of its outstanding 5.750% Senior Notes due 2025 (the "Notes") on October 15, 2023, the redemption date for the Notes.

The redemption price for the Notes will be equal to 100.000% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date in accordance with the terms of the Notes and the indenture under which the Notes were issued. Interest on the Notes will cease to accrue on and after the redemption date.

Additional information concerning the terms of the redemption is contained in the notice distributed to holders of the Notes. Beneficial holders with any questions about the redemption should contact their respective brokerage firm or financial institution. This news release does not constitute a notice of redemption of the Notes.

"We are pleased to unlock the value of this non-core portion of our Kaybob Duvernay and Placid Montney assets. We look forward to progressing our capital allocation framework, as well as allocating proceeds towards our new business in Côte d'Ivoire and development in Vietnam," said Roger W. Jenkins, President and Chief Executive Officer.
