Tim Bremner, CEO of Foraco, reflected on the year, stating, "In 2023, Foraco achieved record revenue, profitability, and cash flow generation both quarterly and annually. We are now clearly recognized as one of the few companies firmly established as a market leader in the industry. Our strategy remains focused on operating within geopolitically stable regions and expanding our service portfolio within the critical sectors of battery metals, gold, and water management. Our strong position, the robustness of our business model, and our clients' satisfaction and trust have resulted in an increased backlog to be delivered in FY 2024, which stood at US$236.1 million on December 31, 2023, compared to US$217.4 million on December 31, 2022 (+9%). To conclude this record year, I am pleased to announce that the Board of Directors, reflecting its confidence in the Company's strength and outlook, has decided to propose a dividend of C$0.06 per share at the next shareholders' meeting. On behalf of the Board and management team, I extend our deepest thanks to each member of the Foraco family for their invaluable contribution to our success."

Fabien Sevestre, CFO of Foraco, shared insights into the financial achievements, "Our trustworthy and close relationship with our clients, along with our discipline in controlling risks, operations, working capital needs, capex, and SG&A costs, contributed to this consistently remarkable performance. During the quarter, we also managed to finalize the early redemption of our previous debt and refinance it, postponing the maturity and cutting the interest charge by 50%. Our net debt was reduced to US$ 65.2 million at year-end, and our leverage ratio to 0.75. This financial strength, along with the notable improvement in our EPS, expands our options for capital allocation. The appreciation in our share price over the past year represents a strong vote of confidence from the market. We are pleased that this appreciation, along with the proposed dividend distribution, rewards our shareholders for their long-term support."

Q4 2023

The solid revenue was driven by the continued performance of main contracts and the provision of value-added drilling services which more than compensated for the decline in activity in certain regions. The rig utilization rate for Q4 2023 held steady at 55%, marginally up from 54% in Q4 2022, with underlying disparities across regions, CIS reporting lower rates, and other regions witnessing higher utilization.

North American operations reported a US$ 2.2 million revenue decrease, at US$ 26.1 million in Q4 2023 from US$ 28.3 million in Q4 2022. This decrease was mainly due to the delayed start on two significant projects now scheduled for 2024 and the preparation and relocation of rigs for new US based contracts which will start in Q1 2024.

South American revenue increased to US$ 31.8 million in Q4 2023 compared to US$ 29.5 million in Q4 2022. New contracts were mobilized during the quarter and will continue through 2024.

In the Asia Pacific region, revenue for Q4 2023 was US$ 16.3 million, a 17% increase that reflects a quarter-over-quarter increase in demand and the acquisition and commissioning of new rigs.

Revenue for the EMEA region saw a 6% decrease, moving down to US$ 12.4 million in Q4 2023 from US$ 13.1 million in Q4 2022. Revenues in Southern Europe and Africa remained stable compared to Q4 2022, while activity in the CIS decreased by 15% due to political and economic uncertainties in the region.

FY 2023

The uptick in revenue for the Mining and Water segments can be attributed to favorable market dynamics, with the Company having renegotiated and extended its long-term rolling contracts since the previous year. Coupled with the Company's proven capacity to deliver, this has generated significant growth.

North American operations saw a 14% surge in activity, with revenues climbing to US$ 119.2 million in FY 2023, up from US$ 104.3 million in FY 2022. This increase primarily resulted from the early remobilization of long-term contracts with senior clients, renewed in the previous year.

In South America, revenues spiked by 26% to reach US$ 131.9 million in FY 2023, a notable increase from US$ 104.6 million in FY 2022. This was driven by all countries ramping up their activity levels, supported by new long-term contracts with senior companies.

In the Asia Pacific region, FY 2023 revenues rose to US$ 68.4 million, a 28% increase, reflecting the period-over-period market growth and the capacity of the Company to meet demand.

In the EMEA region, revenue for FY 2023 amounted to US$50.6 million, representing a 26% decrease compared to the US$68.3 million recorded in FY 2022. Although revenues in Southern Europe and Africa experienced a slight increase compared to FY 2022, operations in the CIS countries witnessed a 42% decline, primarily attributable to the unstable situation in the region.
