

Tenaz Energy Corp. Announces Expected Closing Of Nobv Acquisition

23.04.2025 | Newsfile

CALGARY, April 22, 2025 - Tenaz Energy Corp. ("Tenaz", "Our", or "We") (TSX: TNZ) is pleased to announce that it has completed nearly all of the required transition activities to assume operatorship and to close the previously announced acquisition of NAM Offshore B.V. ("NOBV") from Nederlandse Aardolie Maatschappij B.V. ("NAM"), a joint venture between Shell plc and ExxonMobil Corporation. Based on our most recent timeline, closing of the NOBV acquisition is expected to occur on May 1, 2025, at which time Tenaz will acquire 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of NOBV.

Tenaz and NAM have executed the transition activities approximately two months ahead of our original target date. Upon closing, former NAM offshore staff will become part of Tenaz Energy Netherlands B.V. We believe the experience and capability of our new team, combined with a deep portfolio of investment projects and underutilized operated infrastructure, sets Tenaz up for long-term success in the Netherlands. We will provide updated capital and production guidance upon closing of the acquisition.
