- More than $10 million awarded to nonprofit organizations
- Grants awarded to 352 nonprofits across 6 states, including 190 in Virginia
- Funding supports human needs, environmental stewardship, education, and community vitality

The Dominion Energy Charitable Foundation recently awarded $10 million in grants to nonprofit organizations across multiple states.

Grants were awarded to 352 organizations across the Dominion Energy footprint, including 190 organizations in Virginia. This funding supports a variety of programs and services, including access to healthy meals for seniors, enhancing accessibility at nature trails, mental health services at community clinics, expanding homeownership education for families in need, and therapeutic art programs for military service members, veterans and their families, among other causes, such as:

- Rx Partnership in Richmond, which will expand medication access for people who are uninsured
- ForKids in Chesapeake, which will support the Regional Housing Crisis Hotline
- The Friends of Dyke Marsh in Alexandria, which will work to control invasive plants and restore habitat in the Dyke Marsh Wildlife Preserve

"These shareholder-funded grants are designed to strengthen the good work that's already taking place by nonprofits across local communities," said Hunter A. Applewhite, President of the Dominion Energy Charitable Foundation. "Every day, we strive to make a positive impact in all the areas that Dominion Energy serves. Supporting nonprofits helps to address important needs and to create meaningful outcomes."

Funding is available to organizations in areas where Dominion Energy provides electricity or natural gas or has significant business interests. These include Virginia, South Carolina, northeastern North Carolina, and parts of West Virginia, Connecticut, and Rhode Island.

Applications for the next round of grants will be accepted from August 4 to September 15, 2025. Visit <https://www.dominionenergy.com/foundation> for more information.

About the Dominion Energy Charitable Foundation
