TORONTO, June 6, 2011 /CNW/ --

TORONTO, June 6, 2011 /CNW/ - New Dawn Mining Corp. (TSX: ND) ('New Dawn' or the 'Company') announced that it has completed the acquisition of the remaining minority interest shares of Central African Gold Limited ('CAG'), and now owns 100% of CAG. As previously reported, New Dawn acquired an 88.7% controlling interest in CAG on June 16, 2010, and subsequently increased its interest in CAG to 95.8% at March 31, 2011 and to 96.8% through May 13, 2011.

Ian R. Saunders, President and CEO of New Dawn, commented, 'New Dawn now owns 100% of Central African Gold and, as such, is fully integrating CAG's assets into its overall operations in order to implement the Company's plans to substantially increase sustainable gold production from its extensive array of gold mining properties in Zimbabwe. The consolidated production, revenue and net income figures recently reported for the quarter ended March 31, 2011 are the first indications of the upside potential as a result of the CAG acquisition.'

As a result of the acquisition of CAG, New Dawn has substantially increased its gold resource base and related mining capacity necessary to achieve current annualized gold production targets. New Dawn expects to reach 38,000 to 40,000 ounces of annualized gold production by the end of 2011, and looks to further increase gold production to 50,000 to 60,000 ounces of annualized gold production by late 2012, with a target of 100,000 ounces of annualized gold production by 2015.

ABOUT NEW DAWN

New Dawn is a Zimbabwe-focused junior gold mining company that is currently expanding its consolidated annualized production to 38,000 to 40,000 ounces of gold by the end of 2011, and then to 50,000 to 60,000 ounces of gold within the next 18 to 24 months. New Dawn targets further increasing annualized gold production to 100,000 ounces within the next four to five years.

New Dawn owns 100% of the Turk/Angelus Mine Complex, the Old Nic Mine and the Camperdown project. In addition, it has an 85% equity interest in the Dalny, Golden Quarry and Venice Mines and a large portfolio of prospective exploration acreage in Zimbabwe. These six mines, three of which are now operational with a fourth about to resume production, are divided into three significant gold camps and the Company is in the process of expanding production at these sites. All properties and exploration projects are located in Zimbabwe.

In addition to its gold production, New Dawn is also actively exploring on highly prospective ground employing modern exploration techniques and deploying capital in Zimbabwe, a country that is proven to be geologically rich, highly prospective, and significantly under explored.

New Dawn, with its large gold resource, existing production facilities and current exploration efforts, is well on the path to becoming a mid-tier gold mining company in Zimbabwe, active in both gold production and gold exploration.

Information on New Dawn's gold reserve and resource estimates is included at the Company's website at www.newdawnmining.com or in the Company's filings on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.
