

Terrex Energy Inc.: Dr. Nick Mungan joins Terrex Advisory Board

09.05.2011 | CNW

CALGARY, May 9 /CNW/ - Terrex Energy Inc. (TSXV: TER) is pleased to announce that Dr. Necmettin (Nick) Mungan, P. Eng., has joined our team as Chair of the Advisory Board and consultant in enhanced oil recovery (EOR). The Advisory Board has been established to augment Terrex's internal technical team and to draw on the expertise of industry leaders in the enhanced oil recovery field. He will provide Terrex Energy with exclusive services.

Dr. Mungan is a world recognized expert in reservoir engineering and enhanced oil and gas recovery projects.

He received his Ph.D. in Petroleum Engineering with Honours from the University of Texas in Austin, Texas. Over the years, he has worked with three major oil and gas companies and has consulted in some sixty oil and gas producing countries; including Brazil, Colombia, India, Indonesia, Libya, Malaysia, Mexico, China, the U.S.A., the Soviet Union, and Venezuela. He has spearheaded numerous EOR field applications in U.S.A. and Canada, particularly involving the use of specialized chemicals.

Dr. Mungan has published more than seventy technical papers, and contributed chapters to several books. He has served on the publications and editorial committees of the Journal of Canadian Petroleum Technology, and as Executive Editor of the Reservoir Engineering Journal of the Society of Petroleum Engineers International. He has taught EOR courses at a number of universities and oil companies. His focus has always been field applications of enhanced oil and gas recovery processes, using the latest research findings.

Dr. Mungan is an Honorary Texas Citizen, Honorary Lifetime Member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers International, Honorary Professor of the University of Calgary, and Visiting Professor at the National Autonomo University of Mexico. He is the recipient of numerous scientific and professional societies' awards.
