Golden Alliance Resources Corp. (TSX-V: GLL, Frankfurt: GA0, "Golden Alliance" or the "Company") announces that it proposes to extend the expiry dates of subscriber warrants issued as part of three (3) private placements in April, September and November, 2010 by eighteen (18) months. All other terms and conditions of the warrants, including their price, remain unchanged. The proposed extension of the expiry dates is subject to regulatory approval.

"While we are encouraged with the progress the Company is making towards completing the Environmental Impact Assessment Study that is necessary for obtaining the drilling permit for Rio Tabaconas Project," stated Normand Champigny, President & Chief Operating Officer "we recognize that there has been a significant delay in order to carry out an extensive consultation process with local communities."

In April 2010, the Company issued 3,200,000 warrants exercisable at $0.35 until April 12, 2012 to subscribers of a private placement, of which, 2,890,000 are currently outstanding. The Company proposes to extend the expiry date for these warrants by eighteen (18) months to October 11, 2013 from April 12, 2012.

In September 2010, the Company issued a further 4,542,750 warrants exercisable at $0.65 until March 12, 2012 to subscribers of a private placement. The Company proposes to extend the expiry date for these warrants by eighteen (18) months to September 11, 2013 from March 12, 2012.

In November 2010, the Company issued a further 625,000 warrants exercisable at $1.00 until November 19, 2012 to subscribers of a private placement. The Company proposes to extend the expiry date for these warrants by eighteen (18) months to May 18, 2013 from November 19, 2012.
