TORONTO, ONTARIO--(Marketwire - March 9, 2012) - Allana Potash Corp. (TSX:AAA) ("Allana" or "the Company"), is pleased to announce that it has completed its non-brokered private placement financing (the "Financing") with Liberty Metals & Mining Holdings, LLC ("LMM"), a subsidiary of Liberty Mutual Insurance and the Company's largest shareholder, and International Finance Corporation ("IFC"), a strategic partner of the Company. Having elected to exercise their participation rights in connection with the Company's previously completed bought deal financing for gross proceeds in the amount of $20,000,000 (See Allana news release dated January 10, 2012), LMM has acquired 4,618,835 common shares of Allana (the "Common Shares") and IFC has acquired 1,309,632 Common Shares at $0.80 per Common Share for aggregate gross proceeds in the amount of $4,742,774. The Financing remains subject to the receipt of final approval of the TSX and the Common Shares will be subject to a statutory hold period expiring on July 10, 2012.

Farhad Abasov, President and CEO of Allana, commented: "We are very pleased that both our strategic investors, LMM and IFC, are fully committed to supporting Allana's potash project in Ethiopia. Their continuous support will be critical in further development of our project as we are advancing the feasibility study."

This press release does not constitute an offer of securities for sale in the United States. The securities being offered have not been, nor will be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and may not be offered or sold within the United States absent U.S. registration or an applicable exemption from U.S. registration requirements. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy nor shall there be any sale of the Common Shares or Warrants in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.
