

Vena Expresses Condolences on the Loss of Enrique Winkelried

01.06.2012 | CNW

TORONTO, June 1, 2012 - Vena Resources Inc. ("Vena" or the "Company") (TSX: VEM, LIMA: VEM, Frankfurt: V1R, OTC-BB: VNARF, Xetra®: V1R.DE), is deeply saddened to learn of the sudden death of Enrique Winkelried, General Manager of Vena's Peru operations.

Juan Vegarra, Chairman and CEO stated, "We are sending Enrique's family our heartfelt condolences during this difficult time. Enrique was a special individual and a remarkable leader. I am well aware of the difference he made in the lives of many people, not only people affiliated with Vena but also in his private life. He will be missed by all of us. He was a mentor and teacher to many engineers in Peru, and personally he was like an older brother helping me guide the future of this Company. Our hearts go out to the Winkelried family and all connected to this great man."

Commenting on operations going forward, Mr. Vegarra stated, "We are confident in the strength and depth of our senior management team and staff who are all stepping in during this difficult time to ensure normal continuity of Vena's operations. In addition, our very experienced Board of Directors have all made themselves available to assist Vena management and staff as well as to offer the Winkelried family emotional support. Vena is a strong company with world class projects and partnerships as well as extraordinary people of great depth. David Vent, Vena's Vice President, Exploration who resides in Peru and who is our most senior technical management team member, will take over the General Manager responsibilities in Peru and will count with the support of the entire team developing the Azulcocha project as well as the exploration investments planned for this year."
