TORONTO, ONTARIO -- (Marketwire - May 30, 2012) - Forbes & Manhattan Coal Corp. (TSX:FMC) (JSE:FMC) ("Forbes Coal" or the "Company") is pleased to announce its financial results for fiscal 2012 (12 month period ended February 29, 2012). Revenue for the Slater Coal Stand Alone operations was $104.5 million compared to $46.7 million for the year ended February 28, 2011. Consolidated revenue was $104.5 million compared to $27.7 million for the year ended February 28, 2011. Consolidated gross profit was $17.4 million compared to $4.2 million one year ago. Slater Coal stand alone EBITDA was $27.3 compared to $16.5 million for the year ended February 28, 2011.

"Our remarkable results over the past fiscal year is due to our focus on growing our operations. The $20 million capital expenditure investment has increased our revenue 124% year-over-year," said Stephan Theron, President and Chief Executive Officer of Forbes Coal. "Asian demand for coal remains consistently strong and Forbes Coal intends to continue implementing a marketing strategy that targets this region. We are also very pleased with the expansion and growth at our Aviemore anthracite mine. Domestic and export demand for our anthracite product remains strong and as we grow our share of this market, we are seeing increased demand. As a result, we will continue to evaluate the expansion potential of this mine."

About Forbes Coal

Forbes Coal is a growing coal producer in southern Africa. It holds a majority interest in two operating mines through its 100% interest in Slater Coal (Pty) Ltd., a South African company ("Slater Coal") which has a 70% interest in Zinoju Coal (Pty) Ltd. ("Zinoju"). Zinoju holds a 100% interest in the Magdalena bituminous mine and the Aviemore anthracite mine in South Africa (collectively, the "Slater Properties"). The mines have a substantial resource base and each mine has a projected life span in excess of 20 years. Forbes Coal is in the process of increasing production at both mines and looks to triple production from 2010 levels in the next three years using existing infrastructure and capacity. The Company has in-place transportation infrastructure allowing its coal to reach both export corridors and the growing domestic coal market. Forbes Coal has a strong balance sheet and an experienced coal-focused management team.

Please refer to the Company's NI 43-101 compliant technical report on the Slater Properties dated March 1, 2011 entitled "Technical Report on Slater Coal and Subsidiaries, KwaZulu-Natal Province, South Africa", available on the SEDAR profile of the Company at www.sedar.com. Additional information is available at www.forbescoal.com.
