

New Destiny Mining Corp. Announces Appointment and Resignation

13.02.2012 | Marketwired

VANCOUVER, Feb. 13, 2012 - New Destiny Mining Corp. (TSX VENTURE:NED) (the "Company" or "New Destiny") announces that Mr. Bryce Clark has resigned, effective immediately from his position as President and CEO. The Board of Directors wishes to thank Mr. Clark for his contribution to the development of the Company.

New Destiny would also like to announce the appointment of Mr. David Mark, P. Geo. to the Board of Directors of the Company. Mr. Mark graduated as a geophysicist in 1968 from the University of British Columbia and has been practicing his profession for 43 years. In 1968 he started working for Geotronics Surveys, a company involved mainly in mining exploration, mostly geophysics, which he took over in 1970.

The projects he has worked on and/or supervised have been located in Canada, mainly B.C., western United States, Mexico, other Latin American countries, Africa, and Southeast Asia. The type of mineral deposits on those projects include: porphyry copper, epithermal, other vein types, and placer. The work has involved a wide variety of geophysics, geology, geochemistry and diamond drilling. The geophysics has included induced polarization (IP), resistivity, seismic refraction, seismic reflection, gravity, self-potential, ground penetrating radar (GPR) as well as ground and airborne magnetics, electromagnetics, and radiometrics.

Mr. Mark is a member of the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of the Province of British Columbia as a Professional Geoscientist (P.Ge.).
