

Resignation of Directors John P. Ryan and Howard Crosby; Appointment of James Bradbury as Director; Spinoff of Utah Claims

04.09.2012 | PR Newswire

Silver Scott Mines Inc. (SILS.pk) announced today the resignations of John P. Ryan and Howard Crosby from the Board of Directors, effective August 30, 2012, in order to pursue other interests.

"We appreciate the years of service Messrs. Ryan and Crosby have provided the company as management and members of the Board of Directors and helping direct Silver Scott Mines on a course of production and exploration of gold-silver deposits in Mexico. We wish them both the best of luck in their future endeavors," commented Melvin Herdrick, President of Silver Scott Mines, Inc.

Silver Scott Mines, Inc. also announces the appointment of James Bradbury to the Board of Directors. "James Bradbury's extensive experience in Metallurgical Engineering, especially in the construction of gold and silver recovery systems and project operations with NA Degerstrom, and his past experience as a consultant to the Company will make him an invaluable asset to the Board of Directors," commented Mr. Herdrick.

Silver Scott Mines, Inc. also announces the spinoff of claims located in Beaver County, Utah. "The spinoff of the mining claims located in Beaver County, Utah will allow the Company to focus solely on its projects located in Mexico, a more mining friendly location," commented Mr. Herdrick. "We are excited about advancing our Mexican claims and recognize the need to dedicate all of the Company's funds and personnel toward bringing them into production and establishing larger mineral resources accessible for mining."
