

Colorado Resources Ltd. Announces Appointment of Dr. Jim Oliver

06.06.2012 | Marketwired

WEST KELOWNA, June 6, 2012 - Colorado Resources Ltd. (TSX VENTURE:CXO) ("Colorado" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that Dr. Jim Oliver, Ph.D., P.Geo., has joined the Colorado team as Chief Geoscientist.

Dr. Oliver has more than 25 years exploration experience specializing in global mineral deposit evaluations and early to advanced stage project valuations. He has worked on five continents, in 25 countries and examined or worked on approximately 400 mineral occurrences or deposits. He has acted as a geological consultant to major mining companies, to junior companies and to government geological surveys. Most recently Dr. Oliver held the title of Vice President of Geology for the Hunter Dickinson (HDI) Group of Companies. In that role he was instrumental in the successful acquisition of several mineral projects and deposits and provided leading edge geoscience input on a diverse range of deposit types. Above all, Jim is a committed and energetic explorationist and his successful track record is a strong testament to that commitment.

Mr. Adam Travis, President and CEO of Colorado Resources, states: "I am extremely pleased to be able to welcome Jim to our team. I have had the privilege of working with Jim for over 5 years on projects throughout the world and cannot overstate the skill and depth of technical expertise that he brings with him to our team. With Colorado's strong treasury, and further strengthening our team, we are poised to take full advantage of the opportunities ahead."

Colorado further advises that 1,595,000 stock options at a price of $0.30 per common share (the "Options") in accordance with the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange have been granted to Directors, Officers, employees and consultants of the Company.

The Options have been granted in accordance with the terms of the Company's 10% rolling stock option plan approved on December 8, 2011.
