22.01.2013 | Marketwired

CFO/COO Summarizes the Benefits, Outlook & Perceived Added Value for Shareholders

Micron Enviro Systems, Inc. (PINKSHEETS: MSVS), an emerging mining company, announced that Nicola Newmarch, CFO & COO of Micron Enviro Systems and Britannia Mining Plc, a UK based mining development company (recently merged with MSVS -- pending shareholder ratification), was interviewed by The Stock Radio yesterday, Monday, January 21st, 2013.

Posted on the Micron merger site (www.micronenviro.com), the interview with Mrs. Newmarch covered an array of topics. The CFO/COO spoke about the development of Micron's asset claims, the explosive growth in the country of Malawi, and the expectation of Britannia's iron ore project and logistics. Mrs. Newmarch briefly describes the perceived outlook for the newly combined company and the benefit to its shareholders once the merger is ratified.

The shareholder ratification voting date is set to take place on Thursday, January 31st, 2013. A Notice of Special Meeting has been forward to all shareholders of record (effective date, December 28th, 2012). This package includes: 1. Plan of Merger, 2. Voting Instructions and 3. Proxy Voting Statement Information. The time and location in New York City has also been noted.

The interview is available on the Micron Merger Site as well as 'The Stock Radio':

About Micron Enviro Systems

Micron Enviro Systems is an emerging mining company which explores and pursues opportunities in gold, coal and lithium. Much of the business set in leveraging various gold claims, leases and permits to enhance shareholder value. Over the course of 2012, in narrowing its scope of operation, Micron surrendered various leases and permits unrelated to gold.

In October of 2012 Britannia Mining (UK company), solidified its interest in Micron and executed an agreement to Merge with Micron pending ratification by shareholders.

Micron Enviro Systems is now headed by the CEO of Britannia Mining, Mr. Kenneth Roberts.

About Britannia Mining

Britannia Mining is an explorer and developer of mining projects. The company is developing a high grade iron ore project in Malawi and holds an Exclusive Prospecting License (EPL) for iron ore over 650 sq km at Nthale, Blantyre. From magnetic imaging studies that have been completed over a test area of 20 sq km, the company has located a number of ore bodies that indicate this 20 sq km area could yield upwards of 40 million tonnes iron ore. The company intends to mobilize a drilling program, where upon completion the company expects to provide a resource definition of the first target at Nthale Hill. Britannia Mining is in talks with a number of potential partners to implement a near term mining plan at Nthale Hill.
