SAO PAULO, BRAZIL -- (Marketwired - Apr 30, 2013) - Brazil Minerals, Inc. (OTCQB: BMIX) ("Brazil Minerals" or "BMIX") a diamond producer and gold mining exploration and development company with resources in Brazil, announced that it has hired São Paulo- and New York-based MZ Group as its investor relations advisor.

MZ Group will assist Brazil Minerals with crafting and executing a comprehensive investor relations and outreach program globally, with a particular emphasis on investor outreach in North America, South America and Asia.

Marc Fogassa, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Brazil Minerals, stated, "We have worked diligently to build a differentiated model in metals and mining. Having acquired a strong foundation comprised of producing assets and ownership interest in a world class diamond processing facility, we are moving aggressively to grow our assets and cash flows. Our goal is to further expand and diversify our asset base by acquiring attractive mining assets in Brazil at discounted valuations while maintaining a low cost structure. We have a full pipeline of opportunities meeting such criteria. To help us bring our message to the capital markets, we have hired MZ Group, a premier investor relations firm with strong presence and offices in New York, São Paulo, and in several other countries."

"We are extremely excited to formally begin working with Brazil Minerals," said John Mattio, Senior Vice President of MZ Group North America. "Our focus on natural resource companies with high quality assets, a strong management team and world-class Board of Directors, and a clear line of sight to sustainable cash flows provide investors with a compelling option to invest in Brazil's natural resources sector. Brazil Minerals further differentiates itself because it has revenues today and is de-risking itself by allocating capital across several minerals in a hands-on style similar to private equity investing."
