

TomaGold Announces a Change in the Board of Directors and Senior Management

27.09.2013 | Marketwired

MONTREAL, QUEBEC--(Marketwired - Sep 27, 2013) - TomaGold Corp. \(TSX VENTURE:LOT\) ("TomaGold" or the "Company") announces that Maurice Giroux has resigned from the board and as the Company's Vice President, Exploration for personal reasons. The Board of Directors and Management wish to thank Mr. Giroux for his contribution and wishes him the very best in his future projects.

André Jean, a geological engineer member of the TomaGold team and chief geologist for the Monster Lake project since the very beginning, will supervise the exploration activities for the Company in the interim. Mr. Jean has been the chief geologist for the Monster Lake project since the very beginning. He has over 30 years of experience in geology, having worked for multiple mining companies in Quebec, Central and South America and Africa, including Les Mines Seleine, Louvem, Lac Minerals and Osisko. Mr. Jean graduated from Université du Québec à Chicoutimi in 1979 with a degree in a geological engineering.

"We thank Maurice for his contribution and wish him every success in his future endeavors. We are also pleased that André can step into this new role. This is a natural progression for André, the person chiefly responsible for the major discoveries at Monster Lake," said David Grondin, President and Chief Executive Officer of TomaGold.

"I am proud of our team's determination and for the work accomplished by TomaGold to date," André Jean added. "In the coming months, we will continue to explore Monster Lake, which has excellent discovery potential, as well as the surrounding properties, which are also very promising."
