Liberty Mines Enters Agreement to Acquire Snow Lake Gold Mine

02.10.2013 | Marketwired

TORONTO, ONTARIO--(Marketwired - Oct 2, 2013) - Liberty Mines Inc. (TSX:LBE) has entered into a definitive agreement with QMX Gold Corp. to acquire the Snow Lake gold project in Manitoba (the "Snow Lake Property"). Upon completion of the transaction, which is expected to close on or about November 25, 2013, Liberty Mines will have the following profile:

- Immediate medium-term growth potential targeting 80,000 ounces of gold per year at the Snow Lake Property, with projected total cash costs estimated at CDN$852 per ounce gold.
- Measured and indicated resources of 5,471,000 tonnes grading 4.14 g/t Au for 728,000 oz Au; and additional inferred resources of 2,367,000 tonnes grading 4.43 g/t Au for 336,700 oz Au (see Press Release dated August 28, 2013).
- Proven and probable reserves from these resources are calculated to be 3,477,000 tonnes grading 4.04 g/t Au for 451,900 oz Au (See Press Release dated August 28, 2013).
- Two mills (1,500 tpd capacity Redstone Mill in Timmins, Ontario and 2,150 tpd capacity Snow Lake Mill in Snow Lake, Manitoba) strategically located in two leading Canadian gold districts providing a platform for regional consolidation and future production growth, including custom milling

The Snow Lake Property's assets include the New Britannia Mine with associated plant, infrastructure, and equipment including a fully permitted 2,150 tonne per day modern mill and tailings facility. The property consists of approximately 104 km² of mineral claims and leases containing over ten known mineralized zones, including four gold deposits with 43-101 resources, three of which are historic production sites. The Snow Lake camp is highly prospective for gold mineralization and hosts the Lalor gold project, owned by <a href="https://doi.org/10.10/10/10.2016/nc.1

Transaction Terms

Liberty Mines has entered into a definitive agreement with QMX Gold Corp. to acquire a 100% interest in the Snow Lake Property through the acquisition of QMX's wholly-owned subsidiary, in consideration for a cash payment of USD$20,000,000 to QMX. A deposit in the amount of USD$1,000,000 shall be released from escrow and paid to QMX in the coming days. The remaining purchase price of USD$19,000,000 shall be paid on upon closing of the transaction which is expected to occur on or before November 25, 2013. Liberty may extend closing until January 14, 2014 by paying to QMX an extension fee in the amount of USD$100,000. Closing of the acquisition remains subject to Liberty Mines receiving all necessary government and regulatory approvals in Canada and China, including shareholder approval, and securing the financing necessary to complete the acquisition.
