Corporate Update

Camino is currently obtaining all of the required permits for a reverse circulation drill program at Maijoma, located in Chihuahua State, and anticipates that drilling will commence early in 2014. Prospective for the discovery of carbonate replacement deposits (CRDs) and skarns, Maijoma is 100% owned by the Company and has never before been drill tested. The main drill target is coincident with gravimetric and I.P. anomalies and anomalous zinc-lead-silver surface values. In addition, Camino is actively seeking to acquire new projects located in the Americas that offer discovery opportunity.
