Capital Expenditure & Exploration - A$60m -

* Original Guidance was announced 26 August 2013, with the FY13 Full Year Result.

Western Areas Managing Director, Mr Dan Lougher, said that the guidance upgrades were a direct result of the continuing strong performance of the Company's operations. They are testament to the operational team's hard work and focus on numerous small and large projects across the business which enhanced both productivity and output.

"Whilst we have been able to improve our cost profile with the cooperation of major service providers, our commitment to stringent and disciplined cost management remains core to our business ethic at Western Areas," Mr Lougher said.

Western Areas half year financial results are planned to be released during the week beginning 17 February 2013. The Company, based on unaudited results, is expecting to report improvements from the prior six months, around key metrics including EBITDA margins, EBITDA and Net Profit After Tax.
