We look forward to working with Tonogold and its management team on a long-term basis and believe the Company is in an excellent position to capitalize on the current opportunities in the iron ore market."

About Tonogold

Tonogold is a resource-focused OTC traded entity with gold and silver assets in Nevada. Following the appointment of experienced mining executive, Mark Ashley, as CEO in June 2013, Tonogold has been assessing numerous projects, focusing on those that provide the criteria necessary to establish a new foundation and platform to meet the significant growth aspirations of Tonogold. In October 2013, Tonogold secured, through a series of options, the right to take a controlling (51%) interest in a producing iron ore project in Northern Mexico, which has the potential to develop and grow into becoming a substantial iron ore producer in the medium term. The initial option has recently been extended and expires on April 28, 2014.

Tonogold's CEO Mark Ashley said "Having the backing and support of EAS is a significant endorsement of our strategy and a major advancement in our objectives of becoming a major mining entity. The importance of the experience, reputation and credibility of EAS, particularly in the mining space, cannot be understated and I am looking forward to working with EAS and its management in the future."
