TORONTO, Aug. 11, 2014 - Dacha Strategic Metals Inc. (TSX-V: DSM) ("Dacha") announced that at its annual and special meeting of shareholders that was held earlier today, Dacha's shareholders overwhelmingly approved resolutions relating to:

- the previously announced transaction pursuant to which Merus Labs International Inc. ("Merus") (TSX: MSL, NASDAQ: MSLI) will acquire from Dacha, in exchange for common shares of Merus ("Merus Shares") priced at $1.70 per share, a new subsidiary to be incorporated by Dacha ("Newco") and to which Dacha will contribute a minimum of $6 million cash by way of equity subscriptions (the "Newco Sale"); and
- a proposed share capital reorganization to be implemented immediately following the Newco Sale (the "Share Capital Reorganization") that will result in all of Dacha's outstanding common shares being redeemed in exchange for Merus Shares.

At the meeting, shareholders also re-elected Dacha's existing directors, re-appointed Dacha's auditor and ratified Dacha's existing stock option plan.

Dacha expects that the Newco Sale and the Share Capital Reorganization will be completed on or about August 13, 2014. Dacha will announce the final redemption price for its common shares and the number of Merus Shares to be delivered in satisfaction of the redemption price upon completion of the Newco Sale and the Share Capital Reorganization. Following completion of these transactions, Dacha will apply to be delisted from the TSX Venture Exchange and to cease to be a reporting issuer for Canadian securities law purposes.
