

Inception Mining Inc. Announces the Company's Information to be Available Through S&P Capital IQ's Corporation Records Program

24.06.2014 | GlobeNewswire

SALT LAKE CITY, June 24, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Inception Mining Inc. (OTCQB:IMII) ("Inception" or the "Company") announced today that information pertaining to the Company's business and financials will be made available via S&P Capital IQ's Corporation Records Program.

Standard & Poor's Corporation Records is an information distribution service which provides complete, in-depth coverage of both domestic and international publicly traded companies. Its monthly volumes contain comprehensive data on the business, finances, securities and background on over 10,000 business concerns. In addition, the Daily News section provides regularly updated information such as management changes and annual and interim earnings. Standard & Poor's Corporation Records also serve as a recognized securities manual in many states for "Blue Sky/Manual Exemption" trading. A company's description in Standard & Poor's Corporation Records may satisfy manual exemption requirements, potentially facilitating trading of a company's securities in secondary markets.

"Having INCEPTION's information available through S&P Capital IQ is yet another way that we can keep our shareholders and the investment community informed about our progress," said Michael Ahlin, Inception's CEO. "From the beginning, we've made vigorous efforts to share information about Inception with investors and to be fully transparent about our strategy and our results. We want our shareholders to be well-informed about every aspect of Inception."

As part of the Standard & Poor's Corporation Records program, a full description of Inception Mining Inc. will also be published in the Daily News section of Standard & Poor's Corporation Records, a recognized securities manual for secondary trading in up to 38 states under their Blue Sky Laws.
