13.11.2014 | Marketwired

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - Nov 13, 2014) - Rockhaven Resources Ltd. (TSX VENTURE:RK) ("Rockhaven") is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeremy Richards, Ph.D., P.Geol. as a technical advisor. Dr. Richards will manage research focused on studying and classifying the mineralization and deposit style at Rockhaven's 100%-owned Klaza project, located in Yukon, Canada.

"Rockhaven is very pleased to add Dr. Richards, an acknowledged expert on porphyry and epithermal gold deposits, to Rockhaven's technical team," stated Matt Turner, CEO of Rockhaven. "Under his guidance, detailed analytical studies have commenced which will assist in targeting high-grade gold and silver mineralization in future programs. Rockhaven plans aggressive exploration at Klaza in 2015 to follow up its highly successful 2014 results."

Dr. Richards is a Professor of Economic Geology at the University of Alberta, and is a registered professional geologist in Alberta. He received a B.A. in geology from Cambridge University in 1983, an M.Sc. from the University of Toronto in 1986, and a Ph.D. from the Australian National University in 1990. He was appointed as Lecturer at the University of Leicester, UK, in 1992, and joined the University of Alberta in 1997.

Rockhaven has granted 100,000 incentive stock options to Dr. Richards which are exercisable at $0.25 per share for a period of five years. These options are subject to vesting provisions under which 25% of the options will vest at the conclusion of each three months during the first year of the exercise period.

Rockhaven is a well-funded company focused on growth through exploration of its wholly-owned projects.
