

April 13, 2015 / TheNewswire / Vancouver, BC - Dajin Resources Corp. ("Dajin") (TSX-V: DJI) (OTC: DJIFF) is pleased to report that management of Dajin has been in contact with several industry professionals that are interested in joining Dajin's Advisory Board to assist in the exploration and development of our 100% owned Teels Marsh and Alkali Lake projects in Nevada and our Salinas Grandes project in Jujuy province, Argentina.

Further press releases will be made as the various people join the Advisory Board.

About Dajin: (www.dajin.ca)

Dajin is an early stage energy metals exploration company holding a 100% interest in claims known to contain lithium and boron values in the Teels Marsh region of Mineral County, Nevada. These claims, which cover 2,187 hectares (5,405 acres), was the birth place of US Borax Corp's first borax mine. Dajin also hold a 100% interest in claims covering 1,138 hectares (2,811 acres) in the Alkali Lake region of Esmeralda County, Nevada, 12 km (7 miles) north east of Rockwood's Clayton Valley Lithium operations.

In South America Dajin holds a 100% interest in concessions or concession applications in Jujuy Province, Argentina that were acquired in regions known to contain brines with potassium, lithium and boron values. These concessions total approximately 100,000 hectares (247,000 acres) with 80,248 hectares (198,000 acres) located in the Salinas Grandes/Guayatayoc salt lakes basin adjacent to concessions held by Orocobre Ltd. (ORL-T: TSX), who is partnered with Toyota Tsusho.
