HOUSTON, April 28, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Spectra Energy Corp. (NYSE: SE) today announced that shareholders have elected Miranda C. Hubbs as a new member of its board of directors.

"As we continue to execute on our plan to secure $35 billion of capital expansion projects throughout North America by the end of this decade, we welcome Miranda's extensive financial and energy expertise. As a former asset manager and energy analyst, she will be a valuable addition and will complement our board's wealth of skills and insights," said Greg Ebel, chairman of the board of Spectra Energy.

Hubbs is a former executive vice president and managing director of McLean Budden, one of Canada's largest institutional asset managers, with more than $30 billion in assets under management prior to its 2011 sale to Sun Life Financial.

Prior to joining McLean Budden in 2002, Hubbs served as an energy research analyst and investment banker with the Canadian brokerage firm Gordon Capital. Hubbs received Brendan Wood International TopGun Awards in 2010 as one of the Top 50 Portfolio Managers in Canada and in 2011 as one of the TopGun Investment Minds in Oil and Gas in Canada.

She is a member of the Canadian Red Cross National Audit and Finance Committee and a founding member and national co-chair of the Canadian Red Cross Tiffany Circle Society of Women Leaders. Hubbs received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Western Ontario and a Master of Business Administration degree from York University, and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.

Hubbs was elected at the 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.
