

Hecla Mining Company (NYSE:HL) announced today that its acquisition of Revett Mining Company Inc. (Revett) is now complete. The acquisition brings to Hecla the Rock Creek Project, considered to be one of the largest undeveloped silver and copper deposits in North America. Hecla intends to continue to advance its permitting.

“We welcome the Revett shareholders to Hecla and share their vision of seeing Rock Creek becoming a large, responsibly-operated, silver mine,” said Phillips S. Baker, Jr., Hecla’s President and CEO.

Under the terms of the transaction, Hecla acquired all the outstanding shares of Revett for total consideration of approximately $19 million in Hecla stock. With completion of the transaction, Revett’s shares are expected to be delisted from the Toronto Stock Exchange with effect from the close of trading on June 17, 2015, and the NYSE MKT is expected to suspend trading in Revett shares prior to the opening of the market on June 16, 2015.

American Stock Transfer & Trust Company is acting as the exchange agent. Revett shareholders should receive a letter of transmittal within the next 10 days to exchange each outstanding share of Revett for 0.1622 of a common share of Hecla.
