TORONTO, June 22, 2015 /CNW/ - Aquila Resources Inc. (TSX: AQA) ("Aquila"), a development-stage company with assets in the Great Lakes Region including its 100%-owned gold- and zinc-rich Back Forty Project in Michigan's Upper Peninsula ("Back Forty"), today announced that Stephanie Malec has been appointed Chief Financial Officer effective July 1, 2015.

Ms. Malec brings more than 15 years of experience combining accounting, financial reporting, public markets and mining sector work. She joins Aquila Resources from Malbex Resources, where she also served as Chief Financial Officer. Ms. Malec is a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA, CA) and a graduate of the University of Toronto.

"Stephanie is a welcome addition to Aquila's management team," said Barry Hildred, President and CEO. "Her experience with late stage and senior mining companies will be particularly helpful as we advance with development of our flagship Back Forty project."

Ms. Malec will replace Lou Nagy. The Company would like to thank Mr. Nagy for his contributions, and wishes him future success.
