

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - Jun 29, 2015) - Viscount Mining Corp. (TSX VENTURE:VML)(OTCQB:VLMGF) ("Viscount" or "the Company") is pleased to announce that its common shares have been approved for trading in the United States on the OTCQB.

Viscount's shares will begin trading under the symbol VLMGF. The Corporation will continue to trade on the Toronto Venture Exchange under its existing symbol VML.

Kaare Foy, Chairman of Viscount Mining, stated, "The Company is moving forward with its US partnership in Nevada with Sumitomo Corporation, and trading on the OTCQB will create greater visibility with U.S. investors as well as expedite the Company's opportunity in the global capital markets. The new listing will complement our presence on the Toronto Venture Exchange, while facilitating and enhancing global trading in Viscount's common shares, especially in the US market."

Trading on the OTCQB does not involve the issuance of new common shares of the Corporation or any other securities. The common shares of the Corporation that are currently issued and outstanding, and trading on the Toronto Venture Exchange, may now also be traded through the OTCQB.

About OTC Markets Group:

In 2014, OTC Markets Group introduced standards and eligibility requirements for OTCQB with the goal of making it a better venture marketplace. To be eligible, companies must be current in their reporting to a U.S. or foreign regulator, pass a minimum bid price test and undergo an annual verification and management certification process providing additional information about the company's insiders, advisors and share count. Companies that are approved to trade on OTCQB receive access to additional premium services to help them build visibility and improve transparency for investors.

About Viscount Mining (TSX VENTURE:VML)(OTCQB:VLMGF)
