

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - Jun 30, 2015) - GoviEx Uranium Inc. (CSE:GXU) announced today that the Mining Permit application for the company's Madaouela Uranium Project in the prolific Arlit uranium-mining district of northern Niger has been filed with the Government of Niger.

"Filing the mining permit application is a key step in the mine development process," said Daniel Major, GoviEx's Chief Executive Officer.

"We are maintaining a bullish long-term view for nuclear reactor builds as part of the solution required to combat global air pollution, particularly in Asia, and the Madaouela Project has the potential to supply the market when market conditions improve."
