El Gallo Mine, Mexico - Continued Strong Performance

Production in Q2 2015 was 15% above guidance due to higher gold grade and improved processing efficiencies. The gold grade processed in the quarter was 3.7 gpt, which is higher than the average resource grade at El Gallo, and we expect that over the next six months the grade will gradually return to approximately 2 gpt. Operational performance in 2015 has been strong, with production exceeding guidance in both Q1 and Q2 by 17% and 15% respectively (see Fig. 1). Guidance for Q3 remains at 8,000 gold ounces. Q3 production is typically lower due to the adverse impact of the annual summer rainy season on mining and heap leach efficiency. Our 2015 production guidance remains 50,000 gold ounces at an all-in sustaining cost (AISC) of $750 per gold equivalent ounce².

San José, Argentina (49%³) - Meeting Guidance, Higher Grade

Our attributable production from San José in Q2 2015 was 11,275 gold ounces and 792,344 silver ounces, or 21,839 gold equivalent ounces¹. Compared to Q2 2014, gold and silver production was up 5% and 8% respectively (see Fig. 2). The gold equivalent grade processed in the quarter was 12.7 gpt, which is somewhat higher than the long-run average grade of approximately 11.0 gpt gold equivalent. Full year guidance for San José remains at 46,500 gold ounces and 3.1 million silver ounces at an all-in sustaining cost (AISC) of $1,225 per gold equivalent ounce².

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING NON-GAAP MEASURES

In this report, we have provided information prepared or calculated according to U.S. GAAP, as well as provided some non-U.S. GAAP ("non-GAAP") performance measures. Because the non-GAAP performance measures do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by U.S. GAAP, they may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies.

Total cash costs consist of mining, processing, on-site general and administrative costs, community and permitting costs related to current explorations, royalty costs, refining and treatment charges (for both doré and concentrate products), sales costs, export taxes and operational stripping costs. All-in sustaining cash costs consist of total cash costs (as described above), plus environmental rehabilitation costs, mine site exploration and development costs, and sustaining capital expenditures. In order to arrive at our consolidated all-in sustaining costs, we also include corporate general and administrative expenses. Depreciation is excluded from both total cash costs and all-in sustaining cash costs. Total cash cost and all-in sustaining cash cost per ounce sold are calculated on a co-product basis by dividing the respective proportionate share of the total cash costs and all-in sustaining cash costs for the period attributable to each metal by the ounces of each respective metal sold. We use and report these measures to provide additional information regarding operational efficiencies both on a consolidated and an individual mine basis, and believe these measures provide investors and analysts with useful information about our underlying costs of operations. A reconciliation to the nearest U.S. GAAP measure is provided in McEwen Mining's Quarterly Report on Form 10-k for the year ended December 31, 2014.
