

Santo Mining Corporation Redomicile to the State of Florida

08.09.2015 | ACCESS Newswire

FT LAUDERDALE, FL / ACCESSWIRE / September 8, 2015 / Santo Mining Corporation (PINKSHEETS: SANP), (the "Company"), has redomiciled from the State of Nevada to the State of Florida. This redomicile of the company from Nevada to Florida is one of many changes to come in the reorganization of the company and the strategy to reduce corporate expenses. This redomiciling process will save the company 60% in corporate State filing fees.

The Company is aggressively evaluating how to reduce corporate, professional and administrative expenses by 60%, and at the same time bring profitability via sales to the company.

Franjose Yglesias, CEO of SANP and Cathay Cigars of Asia commented, "We are so strongly committed to this effort, that all corporate directors including myself will not accrued any back salaries, and all directors have and will sign an employment agreement that states they will earn no more than a yearly salary of $1USD and 15% sales commission." Additionally, Mr. Yglesias stated, "The years of non-revenue of SANP and empty promises of pay dirt stop here, our goal is to reduce cost by 60% to 70% and post revenues for the first time in the history of the company. "
