VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - Oct 13, 2015) - Strongbow Exploration Inc. (TSX VENTURE:SBW) announces that, at the request of the TSX Venture Exchange, it has cancelled the issuance of 2,220,000 incentive stock options to directors, officers, employees and consultants as announced September 28, 2015.

About Strongbow

The Company recently completed the acquisition of the Coal Creek and Sleitat tin projects in Alaska as well as a concurrent $1 million private placement. As a result of these transactions, Osisko Gold Royalties is now the Company's largest shareholder, controlling 27.3% of the issued and outstanding share capital of Strongbow (please see Strongbow's news release dated July 24, 2015 for details).

In addition to the Alaskan projects, the Company is actively seeking new opportunities.

This news release contains "forward-looking statements" including but not limited to statements with respect to Strongbow's plans, the estimation of a mineral resource and the success of exploration activities. Forward-looking statements, while based on management's best estimates and assumptions, are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements, including but not limited to: risks related to the successful integration of acquisitions; risks related to general economic and market conditions; closing of financing; the timing and content of upcoming work programs; actual results of proposed exploration activities; possible variations in mineral resources or grade; failure of plant, equipment or processes to operate as anticipated; accidents, labour disputes, title disputes, claims and limitations on insurance coverage and other risks of the mining industry; changes in national and local government regulation of mining operations, tax rules and regulations. Although Strongbow has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking statements, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Strongbow undertakes no obligation or responsibility to update forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
