

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - November 2, 2015) - Lomiko Metals Inc. (TSXV: LMR) (OTCQX: LMRMF) (FSE: DH8B) (the "Company") is pleased to announce its 100%-owned subsidiary has appointed Mr. Ron Mertens as an Advisor to Lomiko Technologies. Mr. Mertens joins Mr. Michael Pesner on the Advisory Board.

"Based in Israel, Mr. Mertens has successfully launched a primary hub for graphene news and tracks companies in the industry", stated A. Paul Gill, CEO."Mr. Mertens will help shape the graphene investment strategy at Lomiko Technologies."

Ron Mertens is Graphene-Info's owner and editor-in-chief, and a graphene market analyst that spent years gathering knowledge and building lasting relationships with other industry professionals. He received a B.Sc in Computing Science and Statistics and Operations Research and worked as a software engineer for P-Cube which was acquired by Cisco Systems. A software engineer by trade, he started his technology blogging business in 2004 with aims of starting truly unique and up-to-date bodies of knowledge that he could share with the world. In that regard, he developed and published The Graphene Handbook, an accessible and straight-forward guide to the Graphene Industry which is available on his site.

Graphene-Info, established in 2009, follows the graphene market and industry and is considered the web's leading graphene resource with tens of thousands of monthly readers, as well as a number of tailored services and products for the graphene industry. Among Ron's additional blogs are the successful OLED-Info that's focused on OLED displays and lighting, as well as several other technological blogs that deal with innovative materials and technologies.
