

Rodinia Lithium Inc.: Provides Update on Change of Business

13.04.2016 | Marketwired

Rodinia Lithium Inc. (TSX VENTURE:RM) ("Rodinia" or the "Company") is pleased to announce the following update on Rodinia's previously announced plan to pursue a change of business ("COB") to a tier 2 investment company under the rules of the TSX Venture Exchange ("TSXV").

Summary of the COB

Rodinia continues to progress towards its COB. A special meeting of shareholders is expected to be called prior to May 30, 2016 to approve the COB (the "Special Meeting"). A management information circular to be sent to shareholders in connection with the Special Meeting is nearing completion and is subject to review by the TSXV.

In connection with the COB, the Company intends to adopt an investment policy (the "Investment Policy") to govern its investment activities and investment strategy. A copy of the Investment Policy will be posted on the Company's profile at www.sedar.com.

The Investment Policy will provide, among other things, that the Company will seek to enhance shareholder value by making use of the experience, expertise and opportunity flow of its management and board of directors ("Board") to opportunistically make investments in situations that the Company believes will provide superior returns. Such investments may include the acquisition of equity, debt or other securities of publicly traded or private companies or other entities in the various sectors in which management and the Board have expertise. A summary of the Investment Policy follows.

	The Company may invest in securities of both public and private companies or other entities that the Company believes have the potential for superior investment returns. The Company will maintain a flexible position with respect to the form of investment and a wide range of investment instruments, including equity, bridge loans, secured loans, convertible debentures, warrants, options, royalties, net profit interests and other hybrid securities. The Company will not invest in physical commodities, derivatives, "short" sales or other instruments (except that the Company may sell call options to purchase securities owned by the Company to avoid locking in gains or avoiding future losses). The Company will not be precluded from investing in any particular industry. Similarly, there are no restrictions on the size or market capitalization of companies or other entities in which the Company may invest, subject to the provisions hereof.
Investment Strategy	The Company has no specific policy with respect to investment diversification. Each investment is assessed on its own merits and based upon its potential to generate above market returns. Immediate liquidity shall not be a requirement. The Company may, from time to time and in appropriate circumstances, seek a more diversified investment situations and investee companies where the involvement of the Company makes a significant difference to the success of the Company's investment. The Company may also make investments in special situations, including event-driven transactions, corporate restructurings, mergers, spin offs, friendly or hostile take-overs, bankruptcies and buyouts. Depending upon market conditions and applicable laws, the Company may seek to divest investments when it concludes that those investments no longer offer the potential to generate gains for the Company, or when other investment opportunities reasonably available to the Company are expected to offer superior returns. Subject to applicable laws and regulatory requirements, the Company may also from time to time utilize its capital to repurchase shares of the Company. Prospective investments will be channeled through the Investment Committee.
Implementation	Once a decision has been reached to invest in a particular situation, a short summary of the investment decision will be prepared by the Investment Committee and submitted to the Board. Investments shall be submitted to the Board for final approval. The Investment Committee will monitor investments for submission to the Board and monitor the Company's investment portfolio on an ongoing basis, and will be subject to the direction of the Board. In selecting securities for the investment portfolio of the Company, the Investment Committee will consider various factors in relation to any particular issuer, including:
Investment Evaluation Process	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• inherent value of its assets;• proven management, clearly-defined management objectives and strong technical support;• future capital requirements to develop the full potential of its business and the availability of the necessary capital;• anticipated rate of return and the level of risk; and• financial performance, including consistency of positive cash flow.
Conflict of Interests	The Company has no restrictions with respect to investing in companies or other entities in which members of the Company's management or Board may already have an interest or involvement. If a conflict is determined to exist, the Company may only proceed after receiving approval from a majority of the members of the Board. The Company is also subject to the "related party" transaction provisions of the and Multilateral Instrument 61-101 - Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Situations.
Monitoring and Reporting	The Company's Chief Financial Officer shall be primarily responsible for the reporting of the performance of each of the Company's investments is monitored. Quarterly financial reports shall be gathered from each corporate entity, and these shall form the basis for the monitoring of the Company's investment portfolio by the Investment Committee. Any deviations from the expected performance shall be investigated by the Investment Committee and, if deemed to be significant, reported to the Board. A full report of the status and performance of the Company's investments is to be prepared by the Investment Committee and presented to the Board at the end of each fiscal year.

Amendment of Investment Policy The Company's Investment Policy may be amended with approval from the Board.

Name Change

The Company currently proposes to change its name to "Routemaster Capital Inc." following the COB.

Shareholders' Meeting

When the Special Meeting is called, the Company will issue a notice and management information circular, which will be mailed to shareholders and posted on the Company's SEDAR profile at www.sedar.com. A majority of shareholders present at the Special Meeting must approve the COB for it to proceed. Shareholder approval of 66 2/3% of the shares voting in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting will be required to approve the change of the Company's name.

Other Information

Completion of the COB is subject to a number of conditions, including TSXV acceptance and disinterested Shareholder approval. The COB cannot close until the required shareholder approval is obtained. There can be no assurance that the COB will be completed as proposed or at all.

Investors are cautioned that, except as disclosed in the management Information circular to be prepared in connection with the COB, any information released or received with respect to the COB may not be accurate or complete and should not be relied upon. Trading in the securities of the Company should be considered highly speculative.

The TSXV has in no way passed upon the merits of the proposed transaction and has neither approved nor disapproved the contents of this press release.
