

HOUSTON, May 31, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Spectra Energy Partners' (NYSE: SEP) Bill Yardley will speak at the Master Limited Partnership Association (MLPA) 2016 Investor Conference on Thursday, June 2, 2016. Yardley is president of U.S. Transmission and Storage for Spectra Energy Corp. (NYSE: SE), the general partner of Spectra Energy Partners.

The presentation is scheduled to begin at 3:30 p.m. ET and will be available via webcast. The presentation and webcast link can be accessed via the Spectra Energy Partners Investors section of Spectra Energy's website. A replay of the webcast will be available for up to one month following the event.

Spectra Energy Partners, LP (NYSE: SEP) is a Houston-based master limited partnership, formed by Spectra Energy Corp. (NYSE: SE). SEP is one of the largest pipeline MLPs in the United States and connects growing supply areas to high-demand markets for natural gas and crude oil. These assets include more than 15,000 miles of transmission and gathering pipelines, approximately 170 billion cubic feet of natural gas storage, and approximately 4.8 million barrels of crude oil storage.

Logo - <http://photos.prnewswire.com/prn/20071107/CLW064>

To view the original version on PR Newswire, visit:<http://www.prnewswire.com/news-releases/spectra-energy-partners-bill-yardley-to-speak-at-2016-mlpa-investor-conference-300441114.html>

SOURCE Spectra Energy Partners, LP

Contact

Media: Creighton Welch, (713) 627-5806, (713) 627-4747 (24-hour media line), Analysts and Investors: Roni Cappadonna, (713) 627-4778