

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - July 21, 2016) - Victory Ventures Inc. (TSXV: VVN) (FSE: VV0) ("Victory or the Company"), is pleased to report that, further to news release dated May 5, 2016, the Company has registered extra-provincially in the Province of Alberta and made application to the Province of Alberta for the transfer of a 100% interest in four contiguous townships northwest of the Fox Creek-Swan hills area in the Peace River Arch originally acquired by its agent. Once the transfer of the industrial and mineral exploration permits has been completed, the Company's interests will cover an area approximately 36,800 hectares (91000 acres) or about 400 square km (144 sq. miles) (the "Property"). There are more than 800 well sites within the Property as documented by the Province of Alberta, of which some are producing wells with lithium content in well brines. The Property is fully serviced with major roadways, power, wellheads, and several waste water well injection sites. An exploration program focusing on the Lithium brines in wells will be developed after the transfer of the minerals rights to the Company.
