

MONTREAL, QC / ACCESSWIRE / August 2, 2016 / Sunset Cove Mining (TSXV: SSM) (the Company) has filed its financials for the year ending March 31, 2016 today. This is another positive step in the Company's efforts to meet the requirement of the regulatory bodies to have the shares return to being traded on the TSX Venture Exchange. The company would also like to thank the Board of Directors for their work on this matter.

Also the Company would like to thank the audit team at Wasserman Ramsay for their diligent work on the file under a tight time line.

The Company will also take the opportunity to announce that the board of directors has accepted to focus its work on the recently acquired Manganese Property and adopted a resolution to authorize a name change to Manganese X Energy Corp. so as to better reflect the new exploration focus it will be undertaking in 2016. This proposed change has been submitted to the TSX Venture Exchange for approval.

On another note, Mr. Jason Mychasiw, a long-time director tendered his resignation from the Board of Directors effective at the end of the meeting. With new professional responsibilities and this inflection point in the Company's life, the Board thanked Jason for his contribution and wishes him well in his future endeavours.

With the closing of the recent financing under certain escrow conditions required by the TSX Venture Exchange and the filing of its current year-end financial statements the company has also made an application for reinstatement to trading.

Sunset Cove's mission is to acquire and advance high potential mining prospects located in North America with the intent of supplying value added materials to the lithium ion battery and other alternative energy industries. For more information visit the website at www.sunsetcovemining.com.
