Only Ineligible Shareholders who held Heron shares as at the the Election Deadline will be entitled to the distribution of cash or Ardea shares.

Ineligible Shareholders are reminded that those who wish to receive a cash payment for Ardea Shares do not need to submit any documentation or take any steps. Ineligible Shareholders who wish to receive their pro-rata entitlement of Ardea Shares must complete the election form and otherwise satisfy the conditions noted therein. These Ineligible Shareholders are further reminded that in the event they seek to receive their pro-rata entitlement of Ardea Shares, and if their shares of Heron are held by an intermediary such as investment dealer, bank or other financial institution, the Heron shares held by them must be removed from the depositary system and issued in certificate form as a direct registered holding on or before 18 November 2016. In addition, the shares of Heron must continue to be held in certificate form as a direct registered holding until after the payment date of the Spin Off. If this step of converting to a directed registered holding is not satisfied on or before 18 November 2016, and if the direct registered holding is not maintained until after the payment date, the Ineligible Shareholder will not be entitled to receive the pro-rata entitlement of Ardea Shares.

Further announcements will be made on the status of the Spin Off, including the details of cash proceeds and the payment thereof, as well as the payment date of the Spin Off of Ardea Shares to those Ineligible

19.11.2025 Seite 1/3 Shareholders who have met the conditions noted in this press release.

On 7 November 2016, Heron issued a press release regarding certain conditions relating to the Spin Off which included a calendar of events for the Ardea financing. This calendar of events relates to the Ardea financing only and does not impact settlement and entitlement of Heron shareholders outside of Australia, as well as the election which is available to Ineligible Shareholders.
