

MONTREAL, Québec (FSCwire) - Argex Titanium Inc. (TSX: RGX) is pleased to announce that it has produced and published an updated corporate presentation. As a result of a number of opportunities that have been presented to the company over the past six months, Argex has shifted its business plan. The company is in advanced discussions with financial institutions, which are presenting non-dilutive project financing options, a partnership with a major producer for the re-engineering of an existing plant and licensing opportunities that could generate near term cash flow.
