

VANCOUVER, March 28, 2017 /CNW/ - Delbrook Capital Advisors Inc. ("Delbrook" or the "Concerned Shareholder"), is pleased to announce overwhelming support for change at the upcoming annual general meeting (the "Meeting") of shareholders ("Shareholders") of Rapier Gold Inc. ("Rapier" or the "Company") (TSX Venture: RPR) scheduled for 10am PST on March 30, 2017.

As of the cut-off today, the Concerned Shareholder deposited to the Company, proxies representing over 48% of the total Rapier shares outstanding who voted FOR the election of a stronger, more experienced board of directors (the "Proposed Board"), specifically: Darren Blasutti, David Lotan, Paul Parisotto and Lorie Waisberg.

"We are grateful for the significant support and thank fellow Shareholders for voting in pursuit of positive change. We look forward to working with the Proposed Board who represent a stronger, more experienced group of mining executives which understand and respect their duties as fiduciaries." said Matthew Zabloski, Managing Director of Delbrook.

As announced in the Concerned Shareholder's news release dated March 27, 2017, the Concerned Shareholder was successful in removing Mr. Roger Walsh as chair of the Meeting. The Concerned Shareholder looks forward to working with the newly appointed independent chair to facilitate a fair Meeting where the democratic rights of shareholders will be respected.
